

Constitution of World Humanity Revolution, UK

This document is the official constitution of World Humanity Revolution, UK ('the party') which has been prepared in accordance with Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (PPERA)

Published: 26 August 2025
Promoted by: Mr. Nurul Islam on behalf of the party
Address: 2 Balmoral Drive, Woking GU22 8EZ, Surrey

1. Name

This party shall be registered and publicly known as World Humanity Revolution, UK.

2. Mission

The World Humanity Revolution, UK is committed to revolutionising political thought based on humanitarian philosophy. We aim to promote social justice, equality, sustainable development, and human empowerment through nonviolent and inclusive means.

3. Territorial Scope

This party will operate in Great Britain only. Its activities, membership, and electoral participation shall be limited to this territorial scope in accordance with the rules of PPERA.

4. Core Goals and Principles

- 4.1. Inherent equality for all, regardless of origin, race, gender, religion, or socioeconomic status.
- 4.2. Eradication of systemic inequalities and discrimination.

- 4.3. Commitment to the Universal Human Rights.
- 4.4. Environmental responsibility and climate action.
- 4.5. Promotion of nonviolence.
- 4.6. Support for international cooperation on global challenges.

5. Organisational Structure and Decision-Making Processes

5.1. Party Officers

The party shall have the following officers, whose terms of office, election procedures, and provisions for resignation or removal are set out in Section 7:

- 5.1.1. President: Mr. Nurul Islam
- 5.1.2. Treasurer: Mr. Akramuzzaman Akramuzzaman
- 5.1.3. Nominating Officer: Mr. Mafiqul Islam
- 5.1.4. Campaigns Officer: Mrs. Mahmuda Akter

5.2. Officers' Responsibilities

XX
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

For the complete Constitution, please contact us via email provided in the website.